The advice she said, "My son, you will probably be insulted a lot and will be seen of no importance. People looked up to him and disregarded his physical appearance due to the knowledge and position that he had. For example, instead of saying "Don't stand up" we say, "Sit down". (Sh. Yasir used to take one hour to memorize a page in the beginning, and eventually came down to 15-20 minutes) 4. Atmosphere. 1. Sincerity. Post this article to your favourite Pinterest boards! Subscribe to my mailing list to get inspirations straight to your inbox. Addressing the issue He then directly addresses the issue by telling the child to not associate partners with Allah. Instead, he simply told the child the right manners of eating. Therefore, what can be concluded here is, when it comes to the rights of Allah, we should firmly prohibit the child such as when preventing them to do shirk, or other haram things. When it comes to matters of the worldly life such as the etiquettes of eating, as mentioned the hadith of Ibn Abi Salamah, it is sufficient to approach the child in a positive manner by enjoying that which is good. There is no wrong in telling our children to not do something when needed. Plus, it will be a good warm up for the brain when you recall from your memory and recite, before you go into the real exercise of doing the new memorization. It's a little hard to not react negatively when telling them to stop. Unfortunately, it is not in English but I thought that it is so beneficial that I'd like to share it with you here. Taking the middle path In Islam, advice comes in the form of both enjoining the good and forbidding the evil. 13. The three chunks. Barakallahu feekum! Get this free printable! That way, you will have the satisfaction of having completed a juz rather than leaving some portions here and there. Narrated ' Umar bin Abi Salama: I was a boy under the care of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and my hand used to go around the dish while I was eating. The Prophet (SAW) has taught us the best of deeds are those that done consistently, even if they are small. [Sahih Muslim] This was how he would advise his companions who were adults. Post this article to your favourite Pinterest boards! Related It is just repetitive recitation and/or listening that will help to memorize. And doing so, will also build the connector between the old ones and the new portion you are going to memorize. Click here to support MuslimMatters with a monthly donation of $2 per month. You just can't memorize properly with distractions, so turn off all your devices (like cell phones) 5. Familiarity: start at the same time, at the same place and use the same mushaf every day. The first time I heard it was in school and I thought how much it differed from the culture that I was brought up in. You need to have your own copy of the Mushaf (the Madani Mushaf is highly recommended), it will later become so dear to you. Start from the back. Shorter surahs will bring you a big boost. As mentioned earlier, the answer is yes. Ideally, get someone who is also memorizing to create a peer pressure system. 2. Consistency. Therefore, I advise myself and you who are reading this, with patience. May Allah grant us all patience in raising our children upon taqwa. So Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said to me, "O boy! Mention the Name of Allah and eat with your right hand, and eat of the dish what is nearer to you." Since then I have applied those instructions when eating. We should not always tell them "no" or "do not" as this may stunt their growth. However, this flaw that you have can be covered with excellence, and excellence is found in seeking knowledge of the religion. All it takes is a small gift from a reader like you to keep us going, for just $2 / month. The first thing you should do in the day is memorize - even do so before your breakfast, because this is your spiritual breakfast. Words are so powerful. So this serves as a reminder for us all to always choose our words wisely whenever we speak to our children or even about our children. Before you start memorize, listen to what you are about to memorize. Have a secluded place to go to and memorize in a place that is quiet. I hope to share it with you with hopes that you will benefit from it too. The more frequently you memorize, the easier it becomes. If you want to take advantage of this blessing, you should be in a position to receive it and therefore strive physically to achieve it and strive spiritually to get the maximum benefit. What to do when your child throws a tantrum 5 Strategies to prevent misbehavior How to speak to our child about their weakness SubhanAllah, this is how a parent should be when addressing an aspect that we know our children are lacking in. The choice of words that we use can either inspire our kids for the rest of their lives or put them down. Most importantly, how should we speak about our child's weakness? The wisdom of Islam This is from the wisdom of Islam, where things are being put in place at the right time for the right people. For example, when we look into another hadith with regards to the same issue (i.e. the etiquettes of eating), the prophet advised his companions differently. Jabir b. You will probably be teased a lot and will be looked down upon. There is no weekend in worship. The bare minimum that one should memorize is at least 3 lines, 5 is more ideal. As for all things, we as Muslims go back to the Qur'an and sunnah in all issues, especially on how to raise our children. Alhamdulillah, I recently heard a lecture on the Islamic perspective on whether we should ever say no to our kids. He said, "Do not associate [anything] with Allah" and did not say "Worship Allah alone." This indicates that it is okay, and in fact encouraged to advise our children in a form of prohibition. When to say "no" As exemplified in the verse above, the prohibition that he mentioned is from the most important issue i.e. about not associating partners with Allah. How to say "no" to our kids With regard to the way we prohibit our child, we follow the way of Luqman as found in the same verse mentioned above. 7. Recite daily in your salaah what you have memorized. This was his advice to his child. Realize it's a spiritual AND physical project. Memorize with the meaning: read the translation before you start and try to match the Arabic words with their meanings 8. Have you ever heard or read about child development experts who say that we shouldn't tell our kids "no"? Rather, we should remain calm and try our best to advise them with positive words. Be patient! So yes, this is the ideal way of parenting. Alhamdulillah, we're at over 850 supporters. If you are consistent, insAllah, you will be able to be huffadh in 5-6 years 3. Do not jump around. They will eventually do things that we dislike. However, if it causes no harm to them or others with regards to their worldly life and hereafter, we should try our best not to overreact. When you have such knowledge, your imperfections will be covered and you will be seen as a person of high stature in society." The outcome Muhammad Al-Awqas listened to his mother's advise and was diligent in seeking knowledge from a young age. Set it and collect blessings from Allah (swt) for the khayr you're supporting without thinking about it. Don't try to go to another surah if you find it difficult and stick to the order. The best time to memorize is right after Fajr. Click on the link to also access to my free resource library packed with printable learning materials for your kids! Want to remember this? Just like how parenting is, in general, to be honest. Think about it, you see your kid using the marker to scribble on their body or you see them standing on the dining table, which just happened with my toddler btw. Being told no is very much something that we get often as kids. The effectiveness of not saying "no" to kids The question now is, to what extent is this method of discipline true and effective. It is very essential to be consistent, and not to skip even one day. Indeed, association [with him] is great injustice." [Surah Luqman: 13] When we look at how he advised his son, we see that he began with a clear cut prohibition. Surround yourself with recitation: listen to the Qur'an. Rather, we should try our best to say yes to them. 'Abdullah reported Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) having said: Do not eat with your left hand, for the Satan eats with his left hand. It is not to show off in front of others that you have memorized a lot. 12. You should divide the memorization of the Qur'an in three parts: a) Juz 28, 29, 30 or just Juz 29, 30 b) Surah Al-Kahf till Juz 28 c) Surah Al-Baqara to Surah Al-Kahf (JazakAllah Khair to those who shared their notes from the class) Alhamdulillah, this is a simple Qur'an tracker to help motivate your child to memorize the 30th juz of the Qur'an. He eventually became a scholar and was a well-respected and esteemed judge in Makkah for 20 years. HomeBlogStudio Arabya(FREE DOWNLOAD) Quran Memorization Calendar for 2021 During one of his seminar about the Sciences of the Qur'an, Sh. Yasir Qadhi shared with us some practical steps that helped him memorize the Quran during his teenage years. After all, the words that come out of our mouths as parents, is a form of do'a whether good or bad. Here is a story that I have recently heard that relates to this. We take the example from Luqman - a man who was given wisdom by Allah, where his story is mentioned in the Qur'an. The bare minimum should be 4-5 pages. This shows the wisdom of the Prophet (salallahu alaihi wasalam). Some may class these under positive parenting. 11. Triple daily dose: a) New memorization at your assigned time of the day b) Revision of the previous 7 days, just before you start the new memorization: This is because the fastest thing you forget is the new memorization. If you forget one portion, you will immediately rush towards the Qur'an and correct your mistake and you will never do this mistake again. At a young age, his mother realized that others may potentially look down on him due to his appearance. An inspiring story Muhammad Ibn Abdurrahman al-Awqas was not someone who is attractive and was born with a short build that his neck could not be seen, and his shoulders protruding out. However, when I was putting together this post, I realized that putting these to practice takes a lot of patience. Make sure that the intention you are making is only for the sake of Allah , to seek His Pleasure so that insAllah, with His Mercy, we will be rewarded in the Aakhirah. This is how we should be when telling our children "no" by always tying its reasoning to Allah so that they will grow up upon taqwa. You can paste stickers, or simply put a mark below the surah for every time your child finishes memorizing them. Our kids hear and most importantly, Allah listens too as a form of a do'a. But, if this is the best way to parent my kids, we should stop making excuses and try our best to implement what we now know insha'Allah. Subscribe to my mailing list to get inspirations straight to your inbox. Sincerity is not a one time factor rather it's a continual battle that you always have to renew. Therefore, my son, you must be diligent in seeking knowledge of the deen. Click on the link to also access my free resource library packed with printable learning materials for your kids! Want to remember this? Find a recitation buddy: get a friend, a family member or someone you know who will listen to your recitation every day. However, if we look to a hadith of the prophet (salallahu alaihi wasalam), there were certain occasions where the prophet advised the children under his care in a form of enjoining the good, without saying "no" or "do not". Timing. It's a miracle and blessing from Allah that you're able to absorb the Qur'an. Looking at our child's development Another important point mentioned in the lecture is to always look at the stage that our child is at. This chart has also a Muslimah version for your little girls when you download this free printable from my resource library. 10. Not wanting this to set him back, his mother gave him a heartfelt advice that eventually impacted the rest of his life. Or if we should really say no, we shouldn't. And [mention, O Muhammad], when Luqman said to his son while he was instructing him, "O my son, do not associate [anything] with Allah. Help us get to 900 supporters this month. Addressing the child He does so by first calling his child saying "Ya bunayya" or "Oh my child" to ensure that he got his attention. Sh. Husary is highly recommended (see here the best resources to help you memorize) 9. Explaining the rationality He then proceeds to explain the reason behind his prohibition saying that shirk is a great injustice. c) At a later/other time of the day, revise those before the recent 7 days. What can be learned from the story is that when we notice our child's weakness, we should acknowledge their weakness choose positive words of encouragement help them overcome their weakness by appropriate advice There are many more similar stories to this but ultimately, the lesson here is to always choose our words wisely. [Bukhari] From this hadith, we see that the prophet did not prohibit Umar bin Abi Salama, who was only a child then, by saying "do not". I think you would already know that, especially when it comes to the things that we say to our children. I heard the story from a lecture but unfortunately, it is not in English so here it is. Children are in fact children, who are always constantly eager to explore the environment around them. Be consistent. Very much different from how he did with a child companion, Ibn Abi Salamah. The first matter you have to pay attention to is your intention (if you intend good you will get good). This is the way of how Allah teaches us in the Qur'an and how our Prophet (salallahu alaihi wasalam) taught his companions. Can we say "no" to our kids? 6. No Magic trick: repeat, repeat, repeat, over and over again.
